

The Nar Valley Federation of Church Academies History & Geography Curriculum Map

Narborough Church of England Primary Academy

| | Autumn 1 | Autumn 2 | Spring 1 | Spring 2 | Summer 1 | Summer 2 |
|---------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| EYFS A | All About Me | In The Woods / Traditional Tales | Celebrations & Festivals | People Who Help Us | Explorers | At the Seaside Pirates |
| EYFS B | Where do I belong? | Celebrations & Commemorations | Space | Let's Get Growing | Dinosaurs | Safari |
| Y1/2 A | The UK - Weather, Countries and Capitals | Events beyond Living Memory: War and Remembrance | Changes within Living Memory: Communication | Navigation - Compass Directions & Maps | Significant Individual: Queen Elizabeth I | A small area of UK contrasting with a small area of a non-European country |
| Y1/2 B | Significant Event and Place in their own Locality: Castles & Kings Geography Fieldwork | Settlements: Where do people live and why? | Hot and Cold Places | Significant Individuals: Shackleton and Scott Antarctica | Significant People in their own Locality: Henry Blogg (and Grace Darling) | Water, Seas and Oceans |
| Y3/4 A | World History: Ancient Civilisations (Sumer, Indus, Shang, Egypt Overview) | World History: Ancient Egypt (Depth Study) | Geography Locational and Place Knowledge: North America (including Central America) | Physical Geography: Tropics and the Rainforest including deforestation | World History: Mayan Civilisation | Human Geography: Natural Resources & Trade including Fairtrade |
| Y3/4 B | Geography Locational and Place Knowledge: Europe How diverse are its landscapes and places? | British History: Stone Age Britain | British History: Bronze and Iron Age Britain | Physical Geography: Mountains, Volcanoes and Earthquakes | World History: The Achievements of the Ancient Greeks | Human Geography: Energy & Sustainability |
| Y5/6 A | British History: Romans in Britain | Geography Locational knowledge: Planet Earth including time zones | British History: Anglo-Saxons | British History: The Vikings | Physical and Human Geography: Rivers and Water | Geographical Skills and Fieldwork: The UK and Ordnance Survey Mapping |
| Y5/6 B | British History Post 1066: The Battle of Britain and WWII | | Physical Geography: Biomes, Chile and the Atacama Desert | Geographical Place Knowledge: South America and Ecuador Charles Darwin & his Voyages on the Beagle | Human Geography: Migration | Changes to Britain after WWII |

Castle Acre and Sporle Church of England Primary Academies

| | Autumn 1 | Autumn 2 | Spring 1 | Spring 2 | Summer 1 | Summer 2 |
|--------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Y R/1 A | All About Me Changes within Living Memory: Travel and Transport | In The Woods / Traditional Tales Local Area: Where do we live? | Celebrations & Festivals Events beyond living Memory: The Great Fire of London | People Who Help Us Significant Individuals: Florence Nightingale, Edith Cavell, Mary Seacole | Explorers Continents and Countries | At the Seaside Pirates Human and Physical Features of a seaside town |
| Y R/1 B | Wonderful Me Local Area: Where do we go to school? | Celebrations & Commerations Events beyond Living Memory: What is Remembrance Day? | Space Changes within Living Memory: Moon Landings Significant People: Neil Armstrong / Tim Peake | Let's Get Growing Wonderful Weather | Dinosaurs Events beyond Living Memory: How do we know the dinosaurs existed? Significant Individual: Mary Anning | Safari Let's Go on a Safari (Kenya) |
| Y 2/3 A | A small area of UK contrasting with a small area of a non-European country (Egypt, Africa) | Ancient Egypt | The UK – Countries, Capitals and Maps | Events beyond Living Memory: The First Railways | Settlements: Where do people live and why? | Significant Individual: Queen Elizabeth I |
| Y 2/3 B | Significant Event and Place in their own Locality: Castles & Kings Geography Fieldwork | Physical Geography: Tropics and the Rainforest including deforestation | Physical Geography: Equator and The Poles | Significant Individuals: Shackleton and Scott Antarctica | Significant People in their own Locality: Henry Blogg (and Grace Darling) | Water, Seas and Oceans |
| Y 4/5/6 A | Geography Locational and Place Knowledge: Europe How diverse are its landscapes and places? | British History: Stone Age Britain | British History: Bronze and Iron Age Britain | Physical and Human Geography: Mountains, Volcanoes and Earthquakes | World History: The Achievements of the Ancient Greeks | Human Geography: Energy & Sustainability |
| Y 4/5/6 B | British History Post 1066: The Battle of Britain and WWII | | Physical Geography: Biomes, Chile and the Atacama Desert | Geographical Place Knowledge: South America and Ecuador | Human Geography: Migration | Changes to Britain after WWII |
| Y 4/5/6 C | British History: Romans in Britain | Geography Locational knowledge: Planet Earth including time zones | British History: Anglo- Saxons | British History: The Vikings | Physical and Human Geography: Rivers and Water | Geographical Skills and Fieldwork: The UK and Ordnance Survey Mapping |