Our Christian Ethos and Values

All policies within the Diocese of Norwich Education and Academies Trust (hereafter referred to as “the Trust”), whether relating to an individual academy or the whole Trust, will be written and implemented in line with our Christian ethos and values.

We have high ambition for all, and we truly value the wider educational experience.

We walk and talk our Christian values. We put people at the centre of the organisation and want to see them flourish and grow. Our schools are inclusive, welcoming those of all faiths and none.

Overall accountabilities and roles

The Trust has overall accountability for all its academies and staff. Through a Scheme of Delegation it sets out the responsibilities of the Trust, its Executive Officers, the Local Governance Committee and the Principal / Headteacher. The Principal / Headteacher of each academy is responsible for the implementation of all policies of the Trust.

All employees of the Trust are subject to the Trust’s policies.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 This policy applies to all employees of the Trust who are expectant fathers, partners of mothers and adopters.

2. Policy

- 2.1 This policy sets out the rights of Trust employees to paternity leave and pay in accordance with national, local and statutory conditions of service. Nothing in the provisions shall be construed as providing rights less favourable than statutory rights.
- 2.2 This policy aims to support managing family-related leave effectively and consistently, to ensure a fair and transparent approach across the Trust.
- 2.3 The Trust is committed to establishing an inclusive environment where employees feel supported. The Trust recognises that helping new parents to feel supported in the workplace is an important part of this.

3. Principles

- 3.1 An employee who is the child's father or is the partner or nominated carer of an expectant mother or adopter, may be permitted to take paid paternity leave at or around the time of the birth in accordance with the local conditions of service and the Trust's Paternity Leave policy.
- 3.2 Around or after the time of the birth, requests by the child's father or the partner or nominated carer of an expectant mother/adopter for flexible working arrangements are treated sympathetically.

4. Eligibility for occupational Paternity Leave

- 4.1 From 6 April 2026, paternity leave is a day-one right. There is no minimum length of service required to qualify for Occupational Paternity Leave.
- 4.2 To be eligible, you must expect to have some responsibility for the child's upbringing and be the:
- Child's biological father
 - Partner of the person having a baby (including same-sex partner)
 - Child's adopter, or the partner of the child's adopter
 - Intended parent (if you are having a baby through surrogacy)
 - Person who a child is placed with under a fostering for adoption arrangement by the local authority or the partner of the person who a child is placed with.

5. Entitlement

- 5.1 The minimum paternity leave will be determined in accordance with the statutory requirements in place at the time.
- 5.2 Paternity leave is not available if the employee has taken any Shared Parental Leave in respect of the child.
- 5.3 The entitlement is up to two weeks (as one single period of one or two weeks or as two non-consecutive periods of leave of a week each) paid leave, to be taken within 52 weeks of the birth date or the date on which the child is placed with the adopter.

- 5.4 An employee can take their statutory paternity leave at any time in the first 52 weeks after the birth or when the child is placed with the adopter. They cannot start statutory paternity leave before the birth.
- 5.5 If a child is born earlier than expected, paternity leave must be taken within 52 weeks of the date of birth.
- 5.6 If the employee opts to take one-week Occupational Paternity Leave they can give notice of a further week of within the 52 weeks following the birth of the child.

6. Notification of Paternity Leave (Birth)

- 6.1 If an employee wishes to take Paternity Leave in relation to a child's birth, the employee must use the application form in Appendix 1 to give their Headteacher/line manager notice in writing of their intention to do so and confirm:
- The expected week of Childbirth
 - Whether they intend to take one week's leave or two consecutive weeks' leave
 - Where they would like to start the leave:
 - The day of the child's birth
 - A day which is a specified number of days after the child's birth
 - A specific date later than the first date of the Expected Week of Childbirth.
- 6.2 The employee must give notice using the application form in Appendix 1 before the 15th week prior to the Expected Week of Childbirth (or as soon as possible after).
- 6.3 The employee must also provide a copy of the MATB1 form with their application for paternity leave.
- 6.4 If the employee wants to change the start date of their paternity leave, they must give written notice at least 28 days before the date the leave is due to start.
- 6.5 When it is not possible to give the required written notice, for example when a child arrives late or early, the employee should inform their line manager as soon as reasonably practicable as to any date changes that may occur.
- 6.6 Paternity leave cannot commence before the baby is born.

6. Notification of paternity leave (Adoption)

- 6.1 If an employee wishes to take Paternity Leave in relation to the adoption of a child, the employee must use the application form in Appendix 2 to give their Headteacher/line manager notice in writing of their intention to do so and confirm:
- The date on which the adopter was notified of having been matched with the child
 - The date on which the child is expected to be placed with the adopter
 - Whether they intend to take one week's leave or two consecutive week's leave
 - When they want their leave to start.
- 6.2 The employee must give notice using the application form in Appendix 2 within seven days of the date on which the adopter is notified of their match with the child or as soon as is reasonably practical.

- 6.3 If the employee wants to change the start date of their paternity leave, they must give written notice at least 28 days before the date the leave is due to start.
- 6.4 When it is not possible to give the required written notice, for example when an adoption is brought forward or delayed, the employee should inform their line manager as soon as reasonably practicable as to any date changes that may occur.
- 6.5 The employee must have received notification that the adoption has been approved by the relevant UK authority (official notification).

7. Bereaved Partner's Paternity Leave (BPPL)

- 7.1 This section sets out a separate statutory right which operates alongside Occupational Paternity Leave. Bereaved Partner's Paternity Leave is distinct legislation introduced by the Paternity Leave (Bereavement) Act 2024 and the Bereaved Partner's Leave Regulations 2026, in force from 6 April 2026.
- 7.2 Where the mother or primary carer of a child dies within one year of the child's birth or adoption placement, the bereaved partner is entitled to take up to 52 weeks' Bereaved Partner's Paternity Leave (BPPL). There is no minimum length of service requirement.
- 7.3 The leave is taken as a single continuous period. The amount of leave available will depend on when the bereavement occurs, as the eligibility ends on the child's first birthday. For example, if the mother dies two weeks after birth, the bereaved partner may take up to 50 weeks' BPPL.
- 7.4 Notice requirements are as follows:
- If leave is to start within eight weeks of the bereavement, notice may be given orally or in writing and leave may commence immediately.
 - If leave is to start more than eight weeks after the bereavement, the employee must give at least one week's notice written notice.
- 7.5 There is no statutory entitlement to pay during BPPL beyond the usual two weeks' Statutory Paternity Pay where the employee meets the 26-week service and earnings eligibility requirements. Any additional pay during BPPL is at the Trust's discretion.
- 7.6 During BPPL the employee retains all contractual terms and conditions of employment except remuneration and has the right to return to the same job or a suitable alternative role depending on the total length of leave taken. The employee is protected from detriment and unfair dismissal for exercising this right.

8. Paternity Pay

- 8.1 Employees who are expectant fathers or partners of mothers and adopters are eligible to take up to two weeks' leave which is paid at full pay (pro rata for less than full time employment), regardless of their length of service.

9. Employment rights during leave

- 9.1 An employee who takes Occupational Paternity Leave has the right not to be dismissed or subjected to any other detriment by reason of taking the leave. Continuous service will continue to accrue during paternity leave for both teaching and non-teaching employees.

- 9.2 During Occupational Paternity Leave an employee has a statutory right to continue to benefit from all the terms and conditions of employment, which would have applied to them had they been at work, except for the terms relating to wages or salary. The employee remains bound by their obligations of good faith, as well as any contractual terms relating to the giving of notice, disclosure of confidential information, acceptance of gifts and benefits and freedom to participate in another business/work elsewhere.

10. The right to return from Occupational Paternity Leave (OPL)

- 10.1 An employee who has exercised their right to take OPL usually has the right to return to the same job that they were employed to do immediately prior to taking leave. This right depends on the OPL having been one of the following under regulation 13:
- An isolated period of leave.
 - The last two or more consecutive periods of statutory leave (maternity, adoption, shared parental leave, parental and paternity leave) which did not include any:
 - Period of parental leave of more than four weeks; or
 - Period of statutory leave which when added to any periods of statutory leave (excluding parental leave) taken in relation to the same child means that the total statutory leave taken in relation to that child totals more than 26 weeks.
- 10.2 If the above does not apply, and it is not reasonably practicable for the employer to return the employee to the job they were doing before their OPL, the employer is entitled to propose an alternative job for the employee to return to which is both suitable for them and appropriate then to do in the circumstances.
- 10.3 The employee's right to return under regulation 13 is a right to return both:
- With their seniority, pension rights and similar rights:
 - In a case where the employee is returning from consecutive periods of statutory leave which included a period of additional maternity leave or additional adoption leave, as they would have been if the period(s) of their employment prior to the additional maternity or adoption leave (as they case may be) were continuous with the period of employment following it; and
 - In any other case, as they would have been had the employee not been absent.
 - On terms and conditions not less favourable than those which would have applied had the employee not been absent on OPL.

11. Informing HR/Payroll

- 11.1 Once in receipt of the relevant application form, the Headteacher/line manager should retain the original signed copy on the employee's personnel file and send a copy of the completed form to their HR Officer to be processed.
- 11.2 Sections A to C are to be completed by the employee. Section D is to be completed by the Headteacher/line manager and must be signed by them, to enable processing.
